

Privacy Policy

Introduction

WeLocate want to give you the best WeLocate experience possible. This Privacy Policy aims to give you a clear view of how we use personal information that you provide, our dedication to protecting it, your rights and the options you have to control your personal information and protect your privacy. It also outlines what personal information we collect about you when you visit our website, when you speak to our Contact Centre, or Local Property and Local Lettings Experts, how we use your personal information and the third parties we will share it with.

What information do we collect about you?

When you use our products and services we will ask for personal information (at the moment of collection we will explain what information is required in order for us to provide the particular product or service, and what information you may choose to provide), such as:

- your postal address and payment details;
- your name;
- your email addresses;
- your telephone numbers;
- your IP address;
- your date of birth.

How we protect your personal information

We are committed to protecting your personal information and implement appropriate technical and organisational security measures to protect it against any unauthorised or unlawful processing and against any accidental loss, destruction or damage.

How will we use the information about you?

1. Processing your transaction: we use relevant personal information described above to process and deliver your transaction and to notify you of the status of your transaction. This includes passing your information to third parties, for example, Expert Agent, our software provider.
2. Preventing money laundering: we will also use your personal information at the appropriate time to conduct an identification check as we have a legal obligation to do so in accordance with the anti-money laundering regulations (see our Terms of Use for more detail). We may share your personal information with our electronic identification check provider Landmark.
3. Ability to proceed with an offer on a property: as a potential buyer when you book a viewing we shall contact you to clarify your financial position i.e. do you have a mortgage agreed in principle or are you a cash buyer. Also, whether you have a property to sell to enable you to purchase another property. We will process your personal information for the purposes of our legitimate interests in determining your ability to proceed with a purchase so that the seller has an informed choice should there be an offer. This also has the potential to speed up any subsequent transaction.
4. To engage with you in relation to our products and services: we will use your personal information to provide you with the products and services you have requested from us. We will process your personal information in this way if it is necessary for the performance of the contract with us.

How will we contact you?

We would like to send you information about products and services of ours, which may be of interest to you. If you have consented to receive marketing, you may opt out at a later date. You have a right at any time to stop us from contacting you for marketing purposes or giving your information to other members of WeLocate Limited.

If you no longer wish to be contacted for marketing purposes, please email us at info@we-locate.co.uk.

WeLocate will not share your information for marketing purposes with other companies unless you have consented to us doing so.
